Our years at Westwood High have been highlighted by many exciting experiences as we have advanced from freshmen to seniors. Now we find it is time for graduation from Westwood and for the beginning of the new life for which we have been prepared. We leave the Westwood traditions to be carried on by our successors, but our accomplishments and memories of good times we take with us — many preserved between these covers.

SENIOR CLASS PUBLICATION
WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL
WESTWOOD, MASSACHUSETTS

JUNE 1967

*For four years Westwood High School has formed the nucleus of our lives.
from her guidance we have molded the designs of our personalities . . .
our attitudes . . . our lives.*

The patterns of our lives are a kaleidoscope of movement, change, and expansion.

Yearly these patterns have shifted and assumed varied forms as we have progressed from freshmen to seniors, as we have learned and have deepened our understanding.

Courses, teachers, music, sports, and dances—all have contributed a piece to the design.

*Our design at Westwood has been based on change—changes in attitudes, friends, teachers.
The change has been gradual, perhaps imperceptible;
but we have changed.
Change is life, and what Westwood has given us is a taste of this life.*

Now it is time to leave, to become planners of the far larger design of society.

*Our individual designs will continue to shift as we go our separate ways in college . . .
jobs . . . armed forces . . . marriage.*

But always will we have within us the reflections of designs we acquired at Westwood High School.

Green Years dedicated to . . .

As a mark of our admiration, we, the class of 1967 dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. Case.

We thank you for your quiet manner, your subtle wit, your good-natured smile, and moreover your unpretentious knowledge and ability.

We thank you for the interest you have shown in each of your students.

We thank you for listening to our complaints and lessening many of the pressures we have felt during these years.

We value the knowledge you have imparted to us; but more than this, we value our association with you — for whom else do we call “Father” Case?

Mr. Peter Case

Designs of Excellence in Education

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

My congratulations are extended to the graduates of the Class of 1967. You have some reason to be proud of yourselves for your achievement so far. May you continue to have even greater reasons for pride along with humble gratitude for the opportunities which will be within your grasp. Such, I believe, is the road to the happiness I wish for all of you.

Mr. Chase and Mr. Kocina plan and formulate the many activities of a busy school.

Department heads meet challenge

FACULTY

ENGLISH

The English Department not only increases mechanical skills in grammar, but also develops a sensitivity to the many forms of expression found in literature, guiding us in developing creative, open, and critical minds.

MATHEMATICS

The Mathematics Department has given us a solid background in mathematics: Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Advanced Math and Calculus. In addition to regular courses they sponsor the Math Team and a Computer Course.

SCIENCE

Courses in natural and physical science, biology, chemistry, and physics are offered by the Science Department. In addition, the annual Science Fair and the various science clubs offer an opportunity for interested students to display their knowledge in these fields.

HEADS OF DEPARTMENT

Mary Potter takes shorthand dictation at the rate of 140 words per minute.

LANGUAGE

The Language Department offers a full curriculum of courses in French, Spanish, and Latin. The department provides experience in basic grammar, writing technique, comprehension, and speech and gives a background to the literature of the language.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Headed by Mr. Davis, the Social Studies Department provides an interpretation of world affairs, traditions, and cultures of past civilizations. A wide variety of courses are offered in different fields and at different levels, including two advanced placement courses.

PRACTICAL ARTS

Students interested in technical careers learn the skills of mechanics, electronics, and wood-working and the proper use of tools in the courses available in the Practical Arts Department.

BUSINESS

The many office skills required in the business world are taught by the business department with the aid of modern business machines. Business students are aptly prepared for employment upon graduation and college preparatory students may learn any of the valuable skills offered by this department.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Home Economics department conducts classes in cooking, sewing, home management, family relations, and psychology. This year a senior sewing class for college-bound girls and a chef's club were instituted. Invaluable preparation for future homemakers is offered to all girls through the various subjects taught by this department.

ART

The art courses, under the direction of Mr. Wellsman, offer a complete study of the many fields of art for those students planning to make art their career. The course also provides hours of relaxation, enjoyment, and a sense of accomplishment for all who have taken it.

MUSIC

Musically inclined students are offered a wide variety of activities to choose from including Chorus, Boys' and Girls' Glee Club, Orchestra, Band and Music Appreciation. Under the able direction of Mr. Markarian the Music Dept. has established a tradition of excellence at W.H.S.

LIBRARY

Under the supervision of Mrs. Bradley the library has provided students with an ever increasing supply of literature. With the aid of the assistant librarian, Mrs. Sheffield, and the Library Club, Mrs. Bradley has given us a much improved background of literature.

to our intellectual growth

*Grow not too high,
grow not too far from home
Green tree, whose roots are in the granite's face!
Taller than silver spire
or golden dome
A tree may grow above
its earthy place,
And taller than a cloud,
but not so tall
The root may not be mother to the stem.*

CLASS POEM

In the today of our lives
We lie hidden in the ghosts of yesterday's children.
As we grew from children to young adults—

We grew apart.

But we concealed the growing differences
in a veil of the past,

And

We were happy, and we were content.

But today must come,

And, with regret, we must shed yesterday's children

Exposing our growing individualities
To the reality of tomorrow.

Sadly we sigh, for we know that

Yesterday must become yesterday.

We say our goodbyes,

And

Suddenly —

In the uncertainty of this tonight,

We run fervently towards our tomorrow.

— Janet Saad

Reflections of the Class of '67

SEPTEMBER, 1963

"I'm not so sure I like this."

"We're late, you know. Do they yell at you if you're late even if you don't know where you're going?"

"What's 'downstairs, new wing' mean?"

"Why don't they just put the door numbers in order?"

After weeks of milling about, we resigned ourselves to the fact that we were destined to be freshmen; and then we elected officers. Our president was Tom Wade; vice-president was Perry Wilson; secretary was Carole Begley; the empty treasury was put into the hands of Margie McCrave. Later we held the ritual Freshman Class dance. Discarding such marvelous appellations as "Freshman Flop" and "Freshman Fiasco," we finally settled on "Monkey with Cupid." (Guess what dance was big that year.) June came and it dawned on us that we had survived our Freshman year (talk about Marblehead.)

SEPTEMBER, 1964

"I have 37 gym classes scheduled."

"You're in luck. The guidance line ends by the Coke machine."

"Think of those poor freshmen."

"No thanks, I'm thinking of me."

"Oh my gosh, I have Biology lab Tuesday right before lunch."

"You don't really eat those animals up, do you?"

Again we spent a few weeks disentangling ourselves. We were straightened out in time to elect Perry Wilson president, Bob Moffat vice-president, Carole Begley secretary, and Margie McCrave treasurer. The Officers mobilized forces for the Sophomore Class dance, "Harvest Hop" (very slight improvement on "Monkey with Cupid".)

SEPTEMBER, 1965

"THIS is the year I'm going to start studying."

"Boy, they're really pushing this college deal down our throats already."

"You mean EVERYONE has to read HAMLET? It sounds like something to eat."

"Well, at least our class is the first to do something."

"Yeah, big deal; wearing shorts during finals."

Well, as the Beatles faded, we rose to the fantastic status of JUNIORS. We were faced with the seemingly insurmountable problem of executing the proverbial prom. With the help of officers, Steve Geary, president; Richard Ghiz, vice-president; Janet Stanley, secretary; and Margie McCrave, treasurer; and the prom co-chairmen, Sandy McCoy, Margie McCrave, and Kathy Harrington, Mr. Baker succeeded in calming the remaining vociferous rabble and in convincing us that all roads lead to Rome—which is better than Wonderland.) We soon found, however, that Rome could not be built in a day, so we built it in a week. The realization that we were soon to be seniors came with the selection of class photographer and PICTURES!!!

SEPTEMBER, 1966

"You know, this is a little depressing—all these little kids."

"I'm a little bit sick of filling out college board applications, college applications, financial aid applications, and these essays—forget it!"

"Boy, I thought senior year was supposed to be fun."

Our final year, finally! We made it through three; we must have enough strength for the fourth one! Our officers, Richard Ghiz (president), Bob Moffat (vice-president), Sarah Holbrook (secretary), and Margie McCrave (treasurer), started the year with the announcement that we wouldn't have enough money for senior activities despite our lucrative class play, "The Whole Town's Talking". We decided to pay up before we incurred huge debts. This was the year of the South American invasion. Lillian Islas and Conchi Labato were our American Field Service students and both came to us from Chile.

MARCH, 1967

"We only have 60 more days of school!"

"Have you been accepted anywhere yet?"

"I don't know what I want to do next year. They must get sick of seeing me in the guidance office."

"You know, strange as it may seem, I think I'm going to miss this place next year!"

If we look back, it really has gone fast. These four years weren't always fun, not even mostly fun; but they WERE good. We've produced sports teams, newspapers, dances, concerts, science fair winners, and National Honor Society members. Sometimes we've wondered if we'd get through these hallowed halls without hollowed heads, but we've made it and we're about ready for anything!

Sheryl Stoodley Is . . .

On the night of May 21, 1966, the school gymnasium was transformed into a Roman palace as the class of 1967 presented its prom, Festa Romana. Roman columns, a fountain enclosed in a rose-covered trellis, a café scene overlooking a Roman countryside, and the music of Mr. Monaghan's orchestra all contributed to make the prom an occasion not soon forgotten.

Chosen queen of the prom was Sheryl Stoodley, who reigned with king Richard Child over the lovely court of seniors Linda Taylor, Christine Martin, Janice Sweeney, and Susan North, and juniors Linda Moscone, Catherine Neal, Carole Begley, and Christine Craigin.

Many thanks are extended to Mr. Baker; to co-chairmen Sandy McCoy, Margie McCrave, and Kathy Harrington; and to the hardworking junior class, all of whose efforts made Festa Romana possible.

The stage was set on the nights of December 8th and 9th, 1966, for the presentation of the senior class play, "The Whole Town's Talking." Written by John Emerson and Anita Loos, the play concerned the transformation of a bashful, clumsy bachelor into a confident, desirable man-about-town. With a combination of excellent casting and the expert supervision of Mrs. Wentzell, the play proved to be an enjoyable and rewarding experience for everyone involved.

FUTURE TEACHERS

Under the direction of President Kathie O'Kane, Secretary-Treasurer Phyllis Hyder and Advisor Miss Liston, the Future Teachers Club of America has a most successful and fulfilling year. Activities included a conference with Lesley College, two trips to Boston for a show and dinner, observation of elementary school classes, and a Christmas Party for the class for the Mentally Retarded at Pine Hill School.

FUTURE NURSES

This year's Future Nurses Club was headed by President Tina Birch, Vice-President Kathy Condrin, and Secretary Beth Carlton. Mrs. Cavanaugh acted as advisor. The club's Christmas party given at the Wrentham State School for Retarded Children and the Bake Sale were very successful. For the first time, the club's members had the opportunity to order rings or pins. Former members of Westwood High School and the club spoke to the girls about their experiences in Nursing.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Edwards and the leadership of President, Joyce Monac; Secretary, Marie Costello; and Treasurer, Gail Bachofner; the French Club has completed a very busy year. Some of the club's activities included a progressive dinner, a Christmas party, several films, and a Computer Dance. The year was highlighted by the opportunity to see "Is Paris Burning?"

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club, under the direction of Mr. DunLany, president Sarah Holbrook, and vice-president Lillian Islas, had a very interesting year. Among their activities were a trip to Symphony Hall, a dinner at a Spanish restaurant in Cambridge, and the viewing of a musical comedy.

CHESS TEAM

Ending the 1967 season with a 4-2-4 record, the Westwood High School Chess Team faired better than was expected. Under the coaching and leadership of the faculty advisor, Mr. Donald Beurman, and senior president Frank Gallagher, the chessmen—and woman rolled to victory over Boston English, Dedham, and Dover-Sherborn as well as tying such strongholds as Sharon and cross-town rival Xaverian Brothers. Carrying the team on to its impressive record were Ed Puzas, Kathy Gottfried, Leslie Harding, along with Bill Hearn, Mike McNamara, and Chris Poreda.

... Staff band and orchestra

The Westwood High School Orchestra is to be commended for an unusually fine season. The first performance of the group was at the P.T.S.A. meeting on January 9, 1967, and from that start, this was going to be one of the finest seasons to come along. These fine musicians have brought much credit to their director Mr. Markarian and to Westwood High School.

The Westwood High School band, under the direction of Mr. Markarian, as usual had a varied and busy schedule this year. Besides marching at football games and parades, the band exhibited outstanding skill at District and All-State competitions; at the Southeastern District Music Festival; and at an exchange concert in April at Plainville, Connecticut.

Officers chosen to lead the band in these activities were: president David Dickhaut; secretary Mitzi Brink; treasurer Eric Pearson; and librarians Janet Saad and Kathy Napoleone.

The 1967 drum major Carol Nelson, co-captains Joyce Gaetani and Suzanne Fiola, and trick twirler Barbara Martin led the majorettes into many pep rallies, parades, football games, and competitions during our graduating year. Their difficult and colorful routines, along with their enthusiasm, encouraged the pep and spirit of the entire student body.

DRILL TEAM

The drill team, under the direction of Mr. Markarian and captain Wendy Barton, proved to be a delightful diversion during the half-times of the football season. As well as marching with the band, the drill team also performed such intricate routines as the Samba and the Charleston; and ended the season with a prayerful salute at the Thanksgiving game.

and Color Guard

COLOR GUARD

The color guard proudly led the band at all football games and at all marching occasions. "Left, left . . . raise that leg higher . . . right, I mean left . . ." were familiar commands heard from captain Margie McCrave. Through their originality and hours of practice the color guard set a fine example for our school.

BASKETBALL

The "Cieri-ous Men" have once again brought the Dual County League championship back to Westwood, and entered the Tech Tourney for the seventh consecutive year. The team finished the season with a 19-4 record.

After being chosen to finish third or fourth in the league because of lack of height, the team steamed on to compile a 17-3 record for the regular season to tie for the league championship. In the preliminary round of the Tech Tourney, Westwood defeated Norwell by a one point margin. The quarter-finals found Westwood facing West Bridgewater. Westwood won the game handily, playing their best ball all year. The semi-final was the last stop for Westwood when Rockport managed to defeat the team.

The senior starting five deserve a great deal of credit for their tremendous success throughout the year. Captain, Steve Geary, with Peter Melnitskey and Perry Wilson led the team in the forecourt. In the backcourt Tom Wade and John McAlice controlled the play with the skill and stamina needed for a winning club. Ed Luippold, John Morrison, Tom Smith, Ken Coleman, and Ron Hough formed one of the best second squads Westwood has ever had. If this year is any criterion, they should bring the league championship back to Westwood next year.

The junior varsity showed promise and ability in compiling an outstanding record of 18-2. Probably the highlight of J. V. play was their game against Newman in which the final score was 106-41. Steve Mitchell and Eric Wilfinger travelled to the varsity for the Tech Tourney and played admirable ball.

The coaching staff deserves a tremendous amount of credit for the dedication and guidance they have given the boys throughout the past years. On many occasions they would finish practice in the afternoon and then hurry off to scout an up-coming opponent. With a six-year record of 107 wins and only 15 losses, Mr. Cieri and Mr. Thwing have been and always will be one of the reasons for Westwood's annual success on the basketball court.

Luckless green team builds

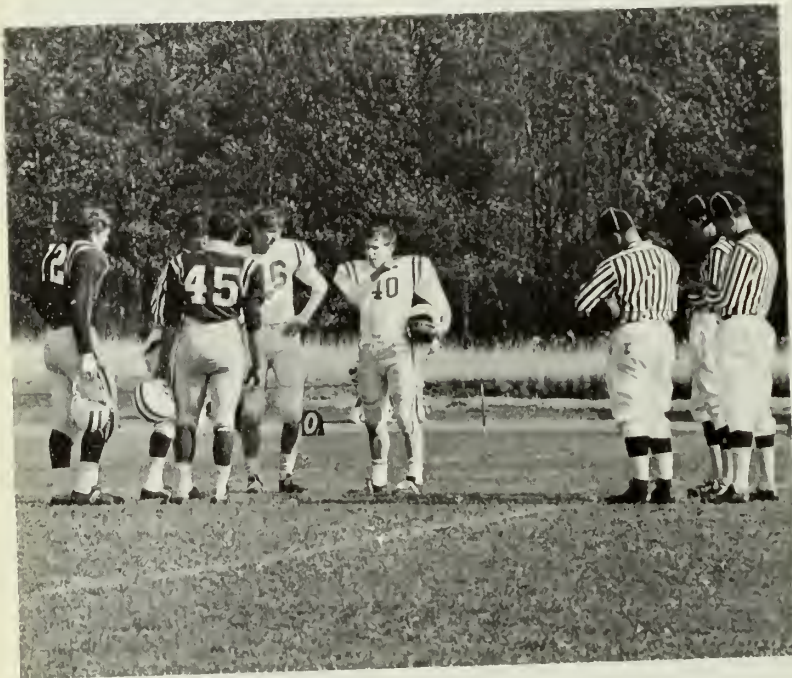

The Westwood High School football team struggled through a disappointing season. The team was instructed and coached by Mr. Reis, assisted by Mr. Tuccelli, Mr. Tripp, Mr. Niles, and Mr. Ryan. It was a growing season and injuries hindered the team's performance. Led by co-captains Tom Wade and Perry Wilson and aided by the unselfish participation of seniors Jay Van Syckle, Richard Royal, Steve Buzzell, Dana Sjostedt, Richard Fisher, Keith Wayne, and John Sullivan, the team will always be remembered for its spirit and determination.

TRACK

Compiling a fine indoor record of 6-1, as well as second place in the Dual County League, the Westwood High Track Team is certainly to be commended for their success under extremely adverse conditions — both indoor and out. Succumbing only to Weston the team carried through outdoors with the same winning form. This year's track teams have carried through with the same tradition of the Westwood High teams of years gone by.

SQUAD MEMBERS

BASEBALL

After last season's moderate success, with a record of 7-6, the Westwood High School diamondmen are seeing home plate with increasing frequency. With senior lettermen David Dickhaut, Ron Ricci, Peter Melnitsky, and Tom Wade returning along with underclassmen like George Chris and Tom O'Connor at peak performance the league championship may indeed be Westwood's again after a year's absence. That which plagues most teams, pitching, is the major problem this year; however, coaches Downes and Walsh seem to have the situation under "control."

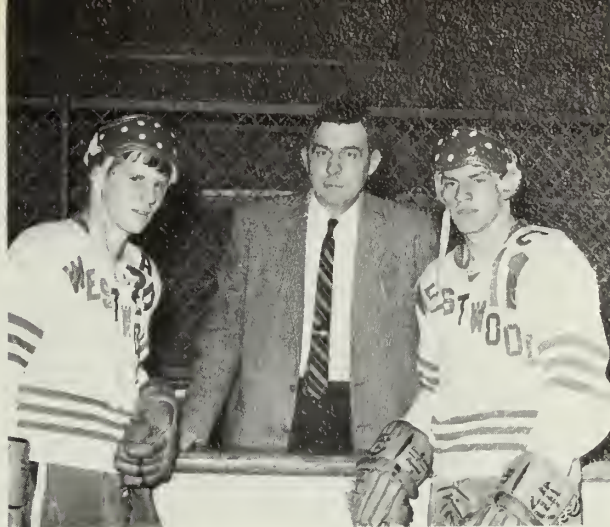

HOCKEY

The hockey team had a disappointing season this year due to the loss of some important team members early in the season. The team was led by Co-Captains Brad Cook, Doug McGee, and Mike Beaumont. Under Mr. Case's guidance, the team showed a lot of potential and determination. After changes in the lineup, the team shaped up rather well and performed creditably against the better teams of the league.

Underclassmen Richard White and Jim Sheehan show promise for the next year and sophomore Mike Duquette, a new and welcome addition this year, will be one of the major factors of strength next season.

TENNIS

After having an extremely tough year in 1966 compiling a 1-13 record, the tennis team is viewing the future with a great deal of optimism. Senior Chris Curwen and juniors Paul Callahan and Mike O'Toole are returning to help boost the team. Dual County League opposition will prove stiff as in the past, but Coach DunLany and the Westwood netmen are on the road up.

GOLF

At the conclusion of last year's season the golf team had compiled a 10 and 3 record, and Coach Thwing feels that this season should be of the same calibre.

Returning lettermen members of the past year are senior Ed Puzas, the number one player, and junior Tom Smith, who looks to be the number two man. Supporting these two boys will be Steve Geary, John Roos, Rick Hannon, and Bruce Kammer.

The boys' basketball teams were not the only successful basketball teams. The girls, under the guidance of Miss Fazzi, proved equally successful. The varsity, with captain Chris Craigin, won eight games and lost only two. The junior varsity, under captain Beverly Walker, racked up a formidable ten wins and no losses!

Although the Varsity Field Hockey team had a record of three wins, one tie and seven losses, Miss Fazzi feels the teams did well this year. Susan Tripp, and Margie McCrave were the captains of this hard-working team.

The Junior Varsity team headed by Chris Sullivan and Terry Oliverio had a record of three wins and eight losses. There were many outstanding players and the team hopes to add to their skills next fall.

This year's school spirit was boosted tremendously by the leadership of the Cheerleading squad. Although a comparatively young squad, the girls, with that unique cheering style of theirs, had many new and original cheers. Westwood High owes them great thanks for their constant pep and enthusiasm during the football and basketball seasons. As in the past, the cheerleaders have represented our school well.
